NEIGHBOURHOOD REGENERATION

An International Evaluation

edited by
Rachelle Alterman and Göran Cars
NEIGHBOURHOOD REGENERATION
An international evaluation

EDITED BY
RACHELLE ALTERMAN
GÖRAN CARS

© 1991

MANSELL
LONDON AND NEW YORK
CONTENTS

Preface vii
Contributors ix

1 Introduction—Comparisons and counterparts 1
Göran Cars

Part I National descriptions and evaluations of neighbourhood programmes

2 Neighbourhood improvement: The Canadian experience 9
Tom Carter

3 American neighbourhood policies: Mixed results and uneven evaluations 28
Marshall Kaplan

4 Urban renewal: The British experience 44
Colin Wood

5 Community involvement in neighbourhood regeneration: A British perspective 70
Rose Gilroy and Richard Williams

6 Neighbourhood Social Development policy in France 84
Jean-Paul Tricart

7 Post-war outer housing estates in the Federal Republic of Germany: Problems, strategies, prospects 91
Fritz Schmoll

8 The upgrading of large-scale housing estates in The Netherlands 110
Hugo Priemus

9 Renewal of large-scale post-war housing estates in Sweden: Effects and efficiency 130
Göran Carlén and Göran Cars
CONTENTS

10 Planning and implementation of Israel's Project Renewal: A retrospective view
   Rachelle Alterman

11 Physical and social changes achieved by Israel's Project Renewal
   Shimon E. Spiro

12 The upgrading of large-scale housing estates in Hungary
   Anna Gáspár and Peter Birghoffer

Part II Dilemmas of evaluation and transferability

13 Evaluation of Neighbourhood Social Development policy
   Jean-Paul Tricart

14 The evaluation of neighbourhood rehabilitation programmes: Lessons from Israel's Project Renewal
   Shimon E. Spiro

15 Dilemmas about cross-national transferability of neighbourhood regeneration programmes
   Rachelle Alterman

Index